TOMMY SHEPPARD

PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

TOMMY SHEPPARD enters his first full season under his new title of President and General Manager of the Washington Wizards after being promoted in November 2021. Sheppard has accumulated 28 years of service in the NBA and is beginning his fourth at the helm for the Wizards. Under his new title, Sheppard continues to lead strategy, analytics, player personnel, scouting and coaching for the Wizards, Go-Go and District Gaming.

Sheppard has earned a reputation as one of the league's most innovative and creative executives. In his first draft as general manager, he selected Rui Hachimura with the ninth overall pick. Hachimura was selected to the 2019- 20 NBA All-Rookie Second Team, becoming the fifth player overall in franchise history to be selected to the team. Sheppard followed that selection in 2020 with Deni Avdija, who was selected as a member of the Rising Stars Challenge alongside Hachimura, although the game was not played due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Sheppard has recently added Corey Kispert (2021), who set Washington's rookie three-point mark with 112 made in his first campaign, and Johnny Davis (2022) in the Wizards' most recent drafts. Sheppard brought in former All-Star Kristaps Porzingis in a 2022 trade deadline deal with Dallas to match next to Bradley Beal and Kyle Kuzma, and also added veterans Will Barton and Monte Morris in a 2022 offseason trade with Denver, reuniting them with head coach Wes Unseld Jr. from his days with the Nuggets.

In 19 years in the Wizards' front office, his role included responsibilities with salary cap management, negotiations, draft preparation and talent evaluation of collegiate athletes and professionals, both domestically and abroad. Sheppard also served an assisting role in the recruitment and evaluation of free agents, statistical evaluation of NBA players, the hiring of coaches and personnel and monitoring the Wizards' efforts in the NBA's Player Programs. During his tenure with the team, he has been tasked with organizing the Wizards' training camp and preseason schedules; overseeing the athletic training, strength training, video, technology and equipment areas for the team; and directing in-arena renovations to areas including the Wizards' locker room, players' lounge, family lounge and front offices.

Prior to his arrival in Washington in 2003, Sheppard was a member of the Denver Nuggets organization since 1994, serving as the Nuggets' Senior Director of Team Services and Player Relations. With Denver, he oversaw all internal and external communications functions and served as the club's primary spokesperson. He also scouted internationally and evaluated high school, collegiate and minor league talent. For his efforts in Denver and overall contributions to the communications efforts of the NBA, Sheppard was honored with the prestigious Splaver/McHugh "Tribute to Excellence" Award in 2010, which is given annually by the NBA Public Relations Directors' Association to a current or former member of the NBA public relations family who has demonstrated an outstanding level of performance and service during his or her NBA career.

An active figure within the United States Olympic Movement for over a decade, Sheppard worked as a press attaché for the three Summer Olympic Games (1996, 2000, 2004), as well as three Olympic Festivals and the 2003 Pan American Games. He assisted with the formation of the Northern European Basketball League (which realigned as part of FIBA Europe) and continues to serve as a consultant for Lithuanian legend Sarunas Marciulionis, who was inducted into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame in 2014, on various basketball projects.

Currently an adjunct professor at Georgetown University for the Sports Industry Management Program, Sheppard graduated from New Mexico State University in 1991, where he was a three-year member of the Aggie football team. After getting his start in media relations as a student assis- tant at New Mexico State, Sheppard headed the sports information office at UNLV before taking ranks in the National Basketball Association in 1994. He also serves on the Industry Advisory Council for the American Public University and the American Military University Systems. Sheppard and his wife, Rosie, are the parents of five daughters: Bailey, Rebekah, Abby, Emma and Tessa, and two sons, Tommy Jr. and Luke.

ROD THORN

SENIOR ADVISOR TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

Rod Thorn begins his fourth season as senior advisor to the general manager and brings over 40 years of front office experience. In this role, Thorn consults with Wizards General Manager Tommy Sheppard on decisions, including personnel, free agency and the draft. The former Baltimore Bullet was originally drafted by the franchise with the second overall pick in 1963 NBA Draft and enjoyed a nine-year playing career.

An NBA veteran of more than four decades, Thorn was named the president of the Philadelphia 76ers on August 12, 2010. He spent the past 10 seasons as president of the New Jersey Nets before resigning on July 15, 2010.

Thorn, the 2001-02 NBA Executive of the Year, joined the Nets on June 27, 2000. During his tenure in East Rutherford, the Nets captured four Atlantic Division titles in a five-season span, including back-to-back Eastern Conference Championships in 2002 and 2003.

Back in June of 2001, Thorn engineered two major deals which helped catapult New Jersey into the league's upper echelon. He traded the rights to Eddie Griffin, the seventh overall pick in the 2001 NBA Draft to the Houston Rockets in exchange for their three first round picks from that same draft, Richard Jefferson, Jason Collins and Brandon Armstrong. The next day, Thorn negotiated a blockbuster six-player trade with Phoenix that landed New Jersey three-time First Team All-NBA guard Jason Kidd in exchange for Stephon Marbury.

Prior to joining the Nets, Thorn spent 14 years working for the NBA league office in Manhattan, where he was the NBA's executive vice president of basketball operations. At the league office, Thorn oversaw all on-court operations, including officiating, game conduct and discipline.

Thorn also served as chair of the Senior Men's Basketball Committee for USA Basketball from 1992 through 2000. Draft day, draft day. June 28th 2012, the day of my 19th birthday. I always say for me, draft day was the best day of my life. Unbelievable feeling, a lot of nerves, had no idea where I was going (to be drafted), honestly. But the whole experience, and to be where I am now was awesome. But to see how young I am is crazy. I have no facial hair, I look like a kid. I mean I just turned 19 so rightfully so, but wow, that's crazy.

I want to say this is when we went to Howard. I took the Ron Brown kids to Howard for a tour of the campus. But yeah, I'm a little older, I need a haircut bad in this photo. My 'fro life as I got older, I let my hair just kind of do what it do. It's amazing seeing the school grow. To be a part of...their inaugural year is amazing. I think now they have a legitimate two graduating classes now, so it's an unbelievable school. It's a college prep school which reminded me of the same prep school that I went to in St. Louis. And just seeing all of these young men, it's just a constant reminder of me and it's motivation for me to just continue to stay in their lives, continue to push them and continue to instill some knowledge in them that they're already getting in school and then just adding a little bit more to that. Let them know that their dreams are possible. There's a lot of amazing schools right here in D.C. that they can attend, HBCU's, everything, so this is easy work for me. This is really what I get a joy out of. I've built relationships with these students. I see them grow, it's amazing to talk to some of them now, they're in college. I'll see some of them outside of the workplace and see them walking down the street and at concerts and things like that and it's been amazing to see. Truly unbreakable bonds that I've developed with a few of these students.

All-Star game number one, when was that, 2018? '18, yeah. 2018 in LA. All-Star with John (Wall). Unbelievable year, super fun, exciting.

To be recognized for this, it's hard to put into words because so many guys around the league do so many exemplary things. Guys are always in the community and it's really hard to choose one winner in a way, or award winner. So, to be named NBA Community Assist Award leader, that's – I really want to give it to all the people that've had something to do with the events and me being able to access certain people and Ron Brown, Howard, everybody. It's so amazing to be able to receive something like this but there's so many people that you thank and so many people that've had something to do with it further than myself. But it speaks volumes to be recognized for it for sure.

"I was mad that we couldn't share the floor together. This was my Schoolboy Q look, shoutout Schoolboy Q, my man. When I first heard it, I heard it before the broadcast a little bit, so it kind of didn't hit me. I was excited, I think my family was way more excited than I was, but to see it on TV and to hear it and see the group of guys that I was named with was – it was a moment for me. It was definitely a moment for me. Super excited. Got a chance to embrace it and just embrace the moment and the hard work that I put in. And again, it's kind of the same thing, it just kind of motivated me to continue to showcase my talent and prove that I belonged in that game with my peers. Unbelievable experience for sure."

"60. Smiling at it, too. I remember this pregame, (I was) beyond locked in. Never thought that I'd see the day, but, amazing to be in the books for that one."

"Same game, my man Joel (Embiid). Nice little layup, I think he let me have this layup in the game, he wanted me to get a few points. It was really odd (playing during the pandemic). One, I didn't go to the bubble, so I didn't get tot experience what it was like playing with no fans initially like a lot of the guys had. So, coming into the big arenas with no fans was really weird initially, but your competitive nature kicks in and you kind of ignore the crowd like you usually do and you just go out there and compete."

"My first born. This is Deuce (Bradley Beal II) as a baby. Oh man, young boy. 20—when was Deuce born—2019? 2018? Sheesh. 2018. It's changed for sure in some ways. You learn that all your kids have different personalities, and you learn to love them all the same, but accept them all in their own realm differently. It's tough on kids because as you get older, and the more kids you have, their siblings actually kind of raise them a little bit more than we do, which is kind of cool, helpful. Deuce was the older brother to Braylon, and to see how much Braylon just follows up behind him was always so cool to see. But then now Braylon gets to be a big brother to Braxton and he's embraced it and he's loved it, so I'm definitely excited to see that. But it is the best feeling in the world being a father. And then to have three boys is all I can ask for, honestly. Those boys are beautiful, they're my world, they are my 'why'. They're crazy though (laughs)."

"Having a day named after you is an amazing feeling. It's something that I don't take lightly or for granted. It's something that you necessarily don't even dream about, it's something that kind of happens for you and I'm blessed to be in that situation, blessed to be able to have that happen. I don't do my community work and give back for attention, or to receive awards, but for the D.C. Council, the mayor, everybody to see that, see the works I've done, see the relationships I've built, it's unbelievable. I never would have thought about it, and I love D.C. for that too, that's amazing."

Q&A WITH WIZARDS ROOKIE JOHNNY DAVIS

BY JACKSON FILYO

WHAT WILL YOU REMEMBER MOST ABOUT YOUR DRAFT NIGHT EXPERIENCE?

It was a really great feeling to have my family with me on Brooklyn on draft night. They've been supporting me my entire life, so that was really special. I'll never forget it.

WHO WAS YOUR FAVORITE BASKETBALL PLAYER AS A KID?

Kevin Durant

WHAT IS THE BEST ADVICE THAT YOU GOT WHEN YOU WERE GROWING UP?

Always stay confident and be yourself.

WHO WAS YOUR MENTOR WHEN YOU WERE GROWING UP?

Definitely my dad. He was the one that introduced me to the game of basketball. Before every single game I have ever played, whether he is there or not, he always texts me. He gives me keys on the things I need to do while I am playing.

WHAT IS SOMETHING THAT WIZARDS FANS MAY NOT KNOW ABOUT YOU?

I love to cook. I don't really have a favorite dish but I'll cook anything.

WHAT HAS BEEN YOUR FAVORITE PART ABOUT LIVING IN D.C. SO FAR?

My favorite part about living in D.C. is getting around to different seafood restaurants. I don't really have a favorite place but that's been great so far.

WIZARDS HAT SERIES SPOTLIGHTS DESIGNS

FROM ANTAWN JAMISON, KYLE ZUMA, AND MONTE MORRIS

BY LUKE ASKEW

As part of the team's extensive list of game day giveaways, the Wizards are introducing Signature Series hat collection this season, showcasing three unique pieces of headwear designed by Wizards legend Antawn Jamison, forward Kyle Kuzma and guard Monte Morris.

On three different game nights this season, the hats will be available for fans in attendance.

"The idea for the hat series has been in development for most of the last year," said Rebecca Winn, Wizards Senior Vice President of Marketing. "But it all came to life when we got Antawn, Kyle and Monte to sit down and go through the design process. Their feedback and creativity made each hat unique and personable. We're so excited to see these hats around the city and play such a big part of our 25th Anniversary celebrations."

The first giveaway took place on November 18, one of the team's many "Throwback Nights," when the Wizards host the Heat. With Miami visiting the nation's capital, former Wizards player Caron Butler was back in town alongside running mates Jamison and Gilbert Arena, making it the perfect night to unveil Jamison's hat design.

The featured hat that night was black and gold colorway, meant to honor those classic black shorts and gold jerseys the Wizards donned periodically from 2006-2008.

"The color concept, the design, and the detailing. To me, I loved it," said Jamison.

The second giveaway took place on December 18, another Throwback Night, when the Wizards hosted the Clippers. That night, Kuzma's design was on display. The Wizards star helped craft a white hat deeply inspired by the Classic Edition jerseys the team is rocking this season to celebrate the 25th anniversary of the Wizards name.

"I think this is a great story to tell young Wizards fans and NBA fans that may not know about this jersey," said Kuzma. "This was a significant time in my life with basketball. Great teams, great players, and I think the world should know about them."

The third and final hat design, crafted by point guard Monte Morris, highlights the team's Cherry Blossom look featured on special nights throughout the season. This hat will be featured on Cherry Blossom Night (March 24) when the Wizards host the Spurs.

Q&A

SNEAKER Q&A WITH MONTE MORRIS

WHAT WAS THE FIRST PAIR OF SNEAKERS YOU REMEMBER OWNING?

"The first pair of sneakers that I remember having has to be the all-white (air) forces, that's a classic. Low top, all-white. (How old were you?) "I was probably – matter of fact, my first pair of shoes was the Jordan 10's, I got the baby pictures too. Those were the first pair of shoes in my baby pictures, so I'll say Jordan 10's."

WHAT IS YOUR ALL-TIME FAVORITE PAIR OF BASKETBALL SNEAKERS?

"Easily the (Nike Air) Huarache 2K4's, red, white and blue pair. I actually brought them out my junior year against Virginia. At Iowa State I brought them back. I got a steal on them on Eastbay, it was like a draft, and I got them back, so the 2k4 Huarache's, any color."

DO YOU KEEP SNEAKERS YOU PLAYED IN FOR SENTIMENTAL REASONS?

"A few of them. I still have a pair of the – I wore them one time – the high-tops, they kind of look like the new Deldon's, they're red and yellow. I had my first triple-double in them in college against The Citadel, my mom has them in a frame back home so, I keep stuff like that. And then the game winner I hit against Texas, I have those yellow Nike's, so yeah, I keep a couple pairs."

WHAT WAS THE LAST PAIR OF SNEAKERS THAT YOU BOUGHT?

"Last pair of on-court shoes, I'd probably say – I just got the Gigi-Kobe black and white Kobe's. I don't plan on wearing them, but just to have."

WHAT'S YOUR FAVORITE LIFESTYLE SNEAKER?

"I like comfy, so I would probably go with the Nike Prestos, they're comfortable, not too flashy and you can wear them with a lot of stuff."

HOW DO YOU DECIDE WHAT SHOES TO PLAY IN?

"I'm superstitious, I try to keep it going, but I'm real spontaneous when it comes to different flavors. I try to throw the jersey off sometimes or match it sometimes. Tomorrow I'm going to try to mix it up with these classic jerseys."

WHAT'S YOUR GO-TO SNEAKER?

"I have to go with the all-white (Nike Air) Force's. You can wear them with suits, you can wear them with pants, sweat suits, you can't go wrong. They always look good, it's a classic shoe. Everybody knows about them."
